

1) What is the worst natural disaster you've ever experienced, or had a family member experience?

Read Revelation 15

2) Can you briefly summarize Sunday's message?

3) On Sunday Ed drew a distinction between one kind of wrath and another. What are these two forms of God's wrath? (See Romans 1:18 and 1 Thess 5:9).

4) Do you believe the accounts of judgements (seals, trumpets, bowls) are meant to be interpreted in chronological order or are repetitions of the same things?

5) How does this chapter make you feel?

6) What is God's purpose for emphasizing his wrath and judgement again and again to his people here in Revelation? (See Rev 14:12-13)

7) How can we communicate what we've learned about God's wrath to unbelievers in our world? What should we say and what should we not say? Remember there are two different kinds of wrath spoken of here.

8) Can you think of something God has done in your life that has made you praise Him as a result?

8) Can you think of something God has done in your life in order to lead you to repentance? Were you grateful for this at the time? How about now?

10) Spend some time praying as a group.

1) What is the worst natural disaster you've ever experienced, or had a family member experience?

Read Revelation 15

2) Can you briefly summarize Sunday's message?

3) On Sunday Ed drew a distinction between one kind of wrath and another. What are these two forms of God's wrath? (See Romans 1:18 and 1 Thess 5:9).

4) Do you believe the accounts of judgements (seals, trumpets, bowls) are meant to be interpreted in chronological order or are repetitions of the same things?

5) How does this chapter make you feel?

6) What is God's purpose for emphasizing his wrath and judgement again and again to his people here in Revelation? (See Rev 14:12-13)

7) How can we communicate what we've learned about God's wrath to unbelievers in our world? What should we say and what should we not say? Remember there are two different kinds of wrath spoken of here.

8) Can you think of something God has done in your life that has made you praise Him as a result?

8) Can you think of something God has done in your life in order to lead you to repentance? Were you grateful for this at the time? How about now?

10) Spend some time praying as a group.