

1) If you could be very famous for a year what would you want to be famous for? Why?

Read Revelation 17

2) Who or what does the prostitute represent here?

3) What does this prostitute do that's so bad? What ends up happening to her?

4) Who is the beast in this chapter?

5) How do the kings and the beast join forces and what happens as a result?

6) What is the message to the church in this chapter?

7) How do you think the original readers of Revelation were comforted by these symbols?

8) How does Babylon symbolize what's wrong with society today?

9) Of societies wrongs, which ones have entrapped you from time to time? How has god helped you to avoid the "snares of the great prostitute"?

10) Although it's hard to understand what all these figures stand for, it's clear that they are meant to show us the power of evil in our world and the danger it holds for the church. What should we take away from this?

1) If you could be very famous for a year what would you want to be famous for? Why?

Read Revelation 17

2) Who or what does the prostitute represent here?

3) What does this prostitute do that's so bad? What ends up happening to her?

4) Who is the beast in this chapter?

5) How do the kings and the beast join forces and what happens as a result?

6) What is the message to the church in this chapter?

7) How do you think the original readers of Revelation were comforted by these symbols?

8) How does Babylon symbolize what's wrong with society today?

9) Of societies wrongs, which ones have entrapped you from time to time? How has god helped you to avoid the "snares of the great prostitute"?

10) Although it's hard to understand what all these figures stand for, it's clear that they are meant to show us the power of evil in our world and the danger it holds for the church. What should we take away from this?