

Read Revelation 6:1-8

- 1) What do these horses represent and how do we experience these things in our world today?
- 2) Some believe these 4 horsemen represent waves of judgement that will be unleashed on the earth in the future after Christians have been raptured. How would that change the meaning of these verses for believers today?
- 3) How have these forces (conquest, strife, scarcity and death) operated throughout history?
- 4) How does this passage help us understand the pain and suffering in our world?
- 5) The riders of these horses are given things and permitted to do what they are doing. Who's giving them these things? Who's permitting them?
- 6) How do these verse address the problem of evil in our world? Is this something you've struggled with as a Christian? Does this make things clearer for you or more confusing?

Read Revelation 6:9-11

- 7) What is God's message here to the believers living through this tribulation?
- 8) Have you ever suffered because of your faith? Have you known believers who have?

Read Revelation 6:12-17

- 9) What is this supposed to teach us about the end times?
- 10) Spend some time praying with one another as a group.

Read Revelation 6:1-8

- 1) What do these horses represent and how do we experience these things in our world today?
- 2) Some believe these 4 horsemen represent waves of judgement that will be unleashed on the earth in the future after Christians have been raptured. How would that change the meaning of these verses for believers today?
- 3) How have these forces (conquest, strife, scarcity and death) operated throughout history?
- 4) How does this passage help us understand the pain and suffering in our world?
- 5) The riders of these horses are given things and permitted to do what they are doing. Who's giving them these things? Who's permitting them?
- 6) How do these verse address the problem of evil in our world? Is this something you've struggled with as a Christian? Does this make things clearer for you or more confusing?

Read Revelation 6:9-11

- 7) What is God's message here to the believers living through this tribulation?
- 8) Have you ever suffered because of your faith? Have you known believers who have?

Read Revelation 6:12-17

- 9) What is this supposed to teach us about the end times?
- 10) Spend some time praying with one another as a group.