

Intro: Tell the group about a time you were locked out of somewhere/something.

Read Revelation 3:7-13

- 1) What does the "key of David" represent in this letter? (see Is. 22:20-24)
- 2) Why do you think that Jesus would give an entirely positive message to the Philadelphian Church?
- 3) Have you ever experienced pressure from others to soften or abandon your faith? What was that like? How did you respond?
- 4) What does it look like for the church to rely its own strength rather than Jesus' strength?
- 5) How can you remind yourself to rely on Jesus' strength rather than your own when you face adversity?
- 6) How do you think this letter is relevant to the church in America today?

Spend some time praying for one another as a group.

Intro: Tell the group about a time you were locked out of somewhere/something.

Read Revelation 3:7-13

- 1) What does the "key of David" represent in this letter? (see Is. 22:20-24)
- 2) Why do you think that Jesus would give an entirely positive message to the Philadelphian Church?
- 3) Have you ever experienced pressure from others to soften or abandon your faith? What was that like? How did you respond?
- 4) What does it look like for the church to rely its own strength rather than Jesus' strength?
- 5) How can you remind yourself to rely on Jesus' strength rather than your own when you face adversity?
- 6) How do you think this letter is relevant to the church in America today?

Spend some time praying for one another as a group.