

1) What's something you've done in your life that you immediately regretted? Did you try to make it right?

Read Revelation 11:1-3

2) What is John commanded to do? Why?

3) What do all the different things in these first 3 verses symbolize?

Read Revelation 11:4-6

4) What do the olive trees and lamp stands represent?

5) The rest of this passage is about the persecution and suffering these witnesses will endure. Why is it so important to interpret these verses with v13 in mind?

6) Can you share a person who was instrumental in you coming to faith in Jesus?

7) Revelation tells us that these witnesses will bring people to repentance, not the wrath and judgements of God. Why is this so important for us to understand when studying Revelation?

8) How does the church lead people to repentance today? Be specific. Have you ever been a part of this happening in a person's life?

9) What is the biggest hurdle in your life that gets in the way of you being a witness to others?

10) Spend some time praying for our church and for our ability to reach the people around us with God's message of hope and repentance.

1) What's something you've done in your life that you immediately regretted? Did you try to make it right?

Read Revelation 11:1-3

2) What is John commanded to do? Why?

3) What do all the different things in these first 3 verses symbolize?

Read Revelation 11:4-6

4) What do the olive trees and lamp stands represent?

5) The rest of this passage is about the persecution and suffering these witnesses will endure. Why is it so important to interpret these verses with v13 in mind?

6) Can you share a person who was instrumental in you coming to faith in Jesus?

7) Revelation tells us that these witnesses will bring people to repentance, not the wrath and judgements of God. Why is this so important for us to understand when studying Revelation?

8) How does the church lead people to repentance today? Be specific. Have you ever been a part of this happening in a person's life?

9) What is the biggest hurdle in your life that gets in the way of you being a witness to others?

10) Spend some time praying for our church and for our ability to reach the people around us with God's message of hope and repentance.